1 OFFICE

Great Britain 1929 £1 Postal Union Congress issue. Ten years ago it was valued at $20. Five years ago it sold for $65. Presently it is worth about $150.00.

Stan Gib Limited offers the new or advanced collector two distinct services from our New York office.

1.-Most rare stamps offer the same security and liquidity as blue chip holdings, yet they commonly appreciate in value much faster. Confidential building and/or managing of stamp portfolios is a specialty of ours.

2. Our experience in philatelic transactions gives us an uncommon advantage in helping you dispose of fine collections quickly and easily. We will purchase better items or collections outright. Or we can sell them via private treaty, or through auction here or in London at Stanley Gibbons Auction.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To all Members, Guests and Friends of the Florida Federation of Stamp Clubs

This is the 24th Annual Convention of our Federation and we are honored to act as Host to the 79th Annual Convention of the "Society of Philatelic Americans." We would like to take this opportunity to extend to each of them a very warm and special "Welcome", not only to "FLOREX '73", but also to Clearwater and to our State of Florida. It is our hope that you will enjoy your visit and return again soon and often.

The fascinating "World of Philately" has so very much to offer to individuals not only from all walks of life; but, also from all age groups. We have no "generation gap." We are indeed fortunate to share a common interest which binds us together in friendship and in pursuit of our mutual hobby.

To the many individuals who have worked long hours in preparation of "FLOREX '73", we owe a most sincere "Thank You". No undertaking of this magnitude would be possible without the dedication of such persons. To them belong the credit of success; to me belongs the oversights and anything which has not been foreseen or provided for.

My wishes are that each of you enjoy "FLOREX '73" have fun and leave with the knowledge that you have established new and lasting friendships.

Charles W. Cadman, President
Fla. Federation of Stamp Clubs

Society of Philatelic Americans

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

9510 HALE ST. - SILVER SPRING, MD. 20910

I am delighted to have this opportunity to welcome all the visitors to FLOREX '73 in conjunction with the 79th Annual Convention of the Society of Philatelic Americans.

This is not the first time the S.P.A. has been in Florida - Actually we convened in Tampa twenty years ago in 1953, but that's much too long to be away from one of my very favorite states. It is especially appropriate for the S.P.A. to be back in the Deep South this year, since the Society was formed in the South in 1894 in the City of Macon, Mississippi, as the "Southern Philatelic Association," becoming a national and international Society in 1918 and changing its name to the Society of Philatelic Americans that year, but keeping the same initials.

While the Society of Philatelic Americans is meeting here to primarily conduct its annual business meetings, I would like to stress the fact that we are essentially a fraternal organization and are here at a convention in this lovely town to mainly enjoy ourselves in the warmth of proven Florida hospitality. While the S.P.A. wants to continue its current mushrooming growth to a certain extent, it is my hope that we will never become a "big business" organization and will remain reasonably small enough, at least in attitude, to have the time to talk and write individually to each and every member whenever he or she desires to communicate with any of our officers, as we are presently doing.

I urge you to visit the S.P.A. Hospitality Booth and to discover for yourself the added value and pleasure which lie in store for you by affiliation with a national society prepared to perform just about any philatelic service. The S.P.A. has gained a reputation as "the friendly stamp society" and we make very effort to live up to that reputation by answering all correspondence promptly and effectively. We sponsor frequent get-togethers for officers, members and spouses, and we especially enjoy hearing from members from all over the world.

On behalf of the officers and members of the Society of Philatelic Americans, I welcome you to FLOREX '73.

He is a recipient of the coveted Luff Award for services to the hobby, and has served on three international exhibition juries (WIPA 65, AMPHILEX 67 and PRAGA 68.) STORY OF FLORIDA FEDERATION STAMP CLUB, INC. AND FLOREX

The Florida Federation of Stamp Clubs was organized on December 18, 1949, in St. Petersburg, Florida. It is an organization of clubs and any club holding regular meetings is welcome to belong.

The first FLOREX show was staged in 1950 in Winter Haven with an informal exhibit of 15 frames and 50 people attending.

Next show was in 1951 in Miami. The same year, the monthly bulletin: The Florida Philatelist was published under the editorship of George Ritter.

1952 "Extamp" held in Tampa had already a 260-frame exhibition and the first cachet cover (designed by F.D. Parslow).

In 1953 "Florex" became the official name and the official seal was adopted in Orlando.

Throughout the years the FLOREX has been hosted by many of our Florida Clubs: St. Petersburg, 1954, 1959; West Palm Beach, 1956, 1969; Miami area clubs, 1957, 1965, 1969; Clearwater, 1953, 1964, 1968; Leesburg, 1955, 1960; Daytona Beach, 1961; Sebring, 1967 and Orlando, 1970, 1971.

In 1970 at the Spring Executive Session in Panama City it was decided that the Florida Federation of Stamp Clubs will sponsor the future FLOREX shows. So FLOREX 1970 in Orlando was the first Federation-sponsored show and another milestone in our history.

In 1972 FLOREX was held in Clearwater.

FLOREX '73

FORTY YEARS

You needn't tell us that four decades are a lot of years. We lived through every one of them, as a full time professional philatelist. And since we collected stamps seventeen years before we turned to them vocationally, that adds up to almost 60 years in philately. We don't even feel that old!

And now that we have come to Florida to spend the downhill years, that skein of years stands us both in good stead. If you need philatelic advice in disposing of your collection, we stand ready to serve you. We can not help you with your buying, except perhaps in friendly, advisory fashion, but if you need qualified appraisals, we are available for consultation.

We remain the only firm in philately with membership in the American Society of Appraisers. Our Senior Membership in that group was earned by nomination, as a result of our work in the field of appraisals and consultations over forty years.
